

ROLE MODEL

Mozzy

(PB on the track)

I ain't tryna be no role model
I ain't tryna buy no line, I need the whole bottle
Better not play with lil' bro, you know it's smoke 'bout him
I ain't tryna be no role model
I ain't tryna buy no line, I need the whole bottle
Better not play with lil' bro, you know it's smoke 'bout him

You can't purchase my love, this shit is not for sale
Nigga stressin', told me he ain't tryna die in jail
Contemplatin' suicide like he might as well
They on Hop, they on Pookie, they as Spice as well
Hold it up and let 'em see it if your diamonds real
Too gangster to be behind the wheel on any skit
Diplomatically, no blemishes
I been fightin' for my innocence, they know I'm innocent
To be a real one take some discipline
But I could never see us settlin' our differences
Apple Pays keep the killers lit
This the militia, niggas militant
I lost Sudzy, nigga cried, still ain't feel it yet

I ain't tryna be no role model
I ain't tryna buy no line, I need the whole bottle
Better not play with lil' bro, you know it's smoke 'bout him
I ain't tryna be no role model
I ain't tryna buy no line, I need the whole bottle
Better not play with lil' bro, you know it's smoke 'bout him

You niggas' statements admissible in the court of law
No remorse at all
Fallin' back 'cause I'm watchin' the back door revolve
They lookin' up to the Mozzy, I can't afford to fall
He graduated with honors, you know I tore him off
Got him right
First skit he ever took and that's what got him life
He was guided by the thugs, should've followed Christ, yeah
Shit brazy, huh? That's what got me like
I don't wanna be no role model
I don't wanna be responsible for those problems
If you don't blossom, then it's my fault
The cell real big, homies all knockoffs
Political matters that I can't call off

I ain't tryna be no role model
I ain't tryna buy no line, I need the whole bottle
Better not play with lil' bro, you know it's smoke 'bout him
I ain't tryna be no role model
I ain't tryna buy no line, I need the whole bottle
Better not play with lil' bro, you know it's smoke 'bout him

I ain't tryna be no role model
I ain't tryna be no role model
