

Courageous

Mr. Big

Yeah, we all have some sweat and skin in the game
We all have a dog in the fight, yeah
We wage a war and a battle to live on through the silent night
I know what you've been through, baby, I can read between your smiles
Been dragging your burden, hiding the hurting
For miles and miles, my crying child

You can be courageous
No one else can save you but yourself
You can make the changes
Climb inside your mind and out of your shell
You're courageous

Talkin' 'bout things that you never do
That's the devil in ya stealing time, yeah
Waitin' for the world to come to you
It's a long, long wait in line
Well, I know what you been through, baby, I can read between yo ur smiles
One thing you do is finding your truth
Keeping the love and the dream alive

You can be courageous
No one else can save you but yourself
You can make the changes
Climb inside your mind and out of your shell
You're courageous
Look in the mirror, face your savior

Walk down the path to a second chance
Wait or hesitate
Leave the blues and the devils dance
Find your brand new day, come on, girl

Yeah, you can be courageous
No one else can save you but yourself
You can make the changes
Climb inside your mind, break out of your shell

You can be courageous
No one else can save you but yourself
You can make the changes
Climb inside your mind, break out of your shell
You're courageous
