

It's Always About That Girl

Mr. Big

She's the last unbreakable habit
Like a constant whisper in my ear
Woo, I see her smile on every stranger
And her diamond eyes staring in the headlights glare
I'm at the end of a bloodshot highway
Where did we go so wrong?
Is it too late to change a thing about it, baby?
Too late to turn around

Every song playing on the radio
The melody is telling me something I should know
Oh-ho, every word yeah seems to bare my soul
Chased by a memory
Driving off the edge of the world

It's always about that girl

She was a tongue-drop heart-stopping beauty
Her revelation is a thorn in my side
What makes a man look over his shoulder?
Now I've got nothing but a picture in my mind
Time has a way of stabbing forward
Where did we go so wrong?
Is it too late to change a thing about it, baby?
Cause life, after love, ain't fair Woh-oh

Every song playing on the radio
The melody is telling me something I should know
Oh-ho oh, every word seems to bare my soul
Chased by a memory
Driving off the edge of the world

I can't escape
It's in my face
It's always about that girl

Listen, baby,
Ooh- who- Oh- oh- oh

Hmmm

Every song playing on the radio (radio)
The melody is telling me something I should know
Yeh hey, yeah, every word seems to bare my soul
Chased by a memory
Driving off the edge of the world
(Driving off the edge of the world)
Oh- ho- oh
It's always about that girl,
yeah
