

Black Mirror

Mr Hudson

Coming to me in a vision almost every night
As if you're really here the picture's sharp and so bright
I wanna see you in a million pixels on my screen
Without you here I'm nothing. I wish that you were here for real

The light goes out then the lights go out
The screen goes black
Just me staring back at me
The light goes out then the lights go out
Jealous thoughts attack
Make me wanna crack my black mirror

Black mirror, black mirror
Make me wanna crack my black mirror
Black mirror, my black mirror
Make me wanna crack

Something you said somehow isn't really making sense
Tell me that I'm wrong. Is this a joke at my expense?
Am I paranoid? I sometimes get that way
Hide behind your smile. It throws a curve at my brain

The light goes out then the lights go out
The screen goes black
Just me staring back at me
The light goes out then the lights go out
Jealous thoughts attack
Make me wanna crack my black mirror

Black mirror, black mirror
Make me wanna crack my black mirror
Black mirror, my black mirror
Make me wanna crack my black mirror
Black mirror, black mirror
Make me wanna crack my black mirror
Black mirror, my black mirror

Jealousy doesn't want you to survive
Jealousy doesn't want you to win
Jealousy doesn't want you to progress
Jealousy doesn't want you to give
It wants you to die
Jealousy wants you to lie
Jealousy wants you to compromise and not compromise
Jealousy doesn't want you to elevate
Jealousy wants you to die
