

Burning Sky

Mr Hudson

Is it time for saying goodbye?
There's no time for wondering why
I look out the window at the burning sky
It was almost all for nothing but at least I got to see you
Smile and tell me it's real
So I smile 'cause we both got the feeling
Look out the window at the burning sky
It was almost all for nothing but at least I got to see you

What do I want? What do I want? What do I want? What do I want?
I don't want to look back when it's over
Did I miss my shot?
