Mr. Vegas

Blessings pouring down, down like a waterfall
Pouring down, down, down, down like a waterfall
Yes, Jah love surround me
Too blessed to see me fall
When my back is against the wall
Hold my head high and stand up tall as blessings pour

Mr Vegas
Nigy Boy again, oh

I'm blessed and highly favored
Blessed and highly favored
Jah blessings a fall like a rain drops on me
Me say a dream is just dream if you fail to manifest it
But believe and you'll achieve
Set no limits for yourself
Put the work in, no make badmind tell you you nah go nowhere
Them no want fi see you do better than them
Them would a rather you full a copper and lead
Them and them dirty heart
Them nah see me fall by the wayside, no
Try all them want
Too resilient fi get to the traps weh them set
You no see the Almighty guide every step weh me take?
From me lay my head 'til me wake
From a birth 'til the end of my day

Blessings pouring down, down like a waterfall
Pouring down, down, down, down like a waterfall
Praise Jah love surround me
Me too blessed to see me fall
When my back is against the wall
Hold my head high and stand up tall as blessings pour

That's why me use prayer fi me weapon
'Cause the wicked a try hard fi me head roll 'pon asphalt
When me down it's like their special calling
But me could a never fear man, when me put me trust in a God
How can they stop from prosper when a Father God a the heart a?
A me story badmind just gwan watch
And the more you fight, me grow stronger
I'm not rush to reach to the top
Any fruits weh ripe, it must drop
Them a pray fi me flops, but God have my back (Him have my back)
I'm gon' take my time
Makes my way up one step at a time
No looking back
Keep on pressing, no
Everywhere me go, Jah blessing follow
Oh, oh

Blessings pouring down, down like a waterfall
Pouring down, down, down, down like a waterfall
Praise Jah love surround me
Me too blessed to see me fall
When my back is against the wall
Hold my head high and stand up tall as blessings pour

Pour, pour
