

Daydreamer

Mree

You
You came as you are
Spinning all of your stories
Hoping I'd fall to your arms

"Dear
Let play with your heart"
Said the dark in the door frame
"Yes sir, I know who you are"

Fear
Shaking my bones
Threatening all that I stand for Questioning who I've become

Feel the warmth in the sun
Finding all of your worries
And all of your troubles undone

Aah

Fears
Clutching my heels
Trying to pull me down under
And teach me what's right and what's real

Here
With my head in the clouds
Some say that maybe I'm dreaming
But I'd rather fight than be found

Aah
