

Face Down

Mree

Should I reach out
Should I try writing something
I wish I knew how to function

Cover my eyes
I don't wanna know what happens
I wanna remember laughing

When did the time get away from me
Living inside getting tired of being lonely

Give me a sign
Tell me I'm onto something
I never know who to trust when
I'm face down

Gimme some light
Show me I'm more than nothing
Remind me of who I was then

When did the time get away from me
Living inside getting tired of being lonely
Showing up fine when you're not ok
Maybe this time we are finally changing
