On Echo

Mree

Love, where do the tears go
And where will my feet roam
And why won't my eyes close
Feeding the echo
Until everyone knows
You're never alone

Love unknown
Let your arms unfold
And let your heart be shown
Rest your eyes
While time is on our side
Well I will long for you

Love, where do the tears go
And where will my feet roam
And why won't my eyes close
Feeding the echo
Until everyone knows
You're never alone

Doubt be gone
To bare ourselves in song
Soon to sing along
Love anew
With minds as clear as dew
Well I will long for you

Love, where do the tears go
And where will my feet roam
And why won't my eyes close
Feeding the echo
Until everyone knows
You're never alone
