

Talkabout

Mree

Maybe I'm broken
Maybe the solvent in my blood has been denied
Slip of a potion
Feeling it poisoning the bounty in my mind

Oh, I don't wanna talk about this talkabout with you
'Cause all you ever talk about is what I ought to do
I know, I know
I'm losing my self control
Don't wanna talk, don't wanna talk
Don't wanna talk about it

Running on empty
Now that you've won, I guess I lost my appetite
Maybe I'm angry
Now that I'm caught inside, I want to start a fight

Oh, I don't wanna talk about this talkabout with you
'Cause all you ever talk about is what I ought to do
I know, I know
I'm losing my self control
Don't wanna talk, don't wanna talk
Don't wanna talk about it

I'm chasing a dream of bright red and green lights
Out on the walkway
401 nights
Watching the sun lighting my room

Oh, I don't wanna talk about this talkabout with you
'Cause all you ever talk about is what I ought to do
I know, I know
I'm losing my self control
Don't wanna talk, don't wanna talk
Don't wanna talk about it

Don't wanna talk, don't wanna talk
Don't wanna talk about it
