

Alter Ego

Mr.Kitty

I'm not your friend
Not gonna save you
We're at the end
It's a skeleton crew
Don't play with me
I'll bring the anger
So carelessly
You dance with danger

If I can't be you, I'd rather be dead
To be someone else, outside of my head
I've been waiting so long, to watch it all go
I'm bringing you down, my alter ego
If I can't be you, I'd rather be dead
To be someone else, outside of my head
I've been waiting so long, to watch it all go
I'm bringing you down, my alter ego

My staring tongue
Spoke about eviction
Of a hard and strong
By this contradiction
To watch you beg
For a life so unfair
Go find yourself
In the world, it's out there

If I can't be you, I'd rather be dead
To be someone else, outside of my head
I've been waiting so long, to watch it all go
I'm bringing you down, my alter ego
If I can't be you, I'd rather be dead
To be someone else, outside of my head
I've been waiting so long, to watch it all go
I'm bringing you down, my alter ego

I'm taking out, my alter ego
I'm bringing you down, my alter ego
