

Bloodletting

Mr.Kitty

Cry...

Hypocrite!

You complicate to recommit
I lacerate for innocence
The first and last no one escapes
Carry the mask for your mistakes

We'll burn the sky distort the view
I'll wear the blood you'll wear the wounds
Let's clear the dust of me and you
Mouth full of glass can't see the truth

Armed to the teeth

I'll avenge your pain to me
Without a voice don't try to scream
Destroying me is not a choice
A thousand times is not enough

You burned my eyes, now I can see
I've seen a god but hell is you
What do you mean you're in distress
I thought you meant to rest in peace

Give your hate to me
So I can finally breathe

Give your hate to me
So I can finally breathe

Give your hate to me
So I can finally breathe

Give your hate to me
So I can finally breathe

Why...
