

On a highway through a memory
Take my heart to a kingdom falling down
Dragging my feet through the ruins
Give me something to feel the pain again

Why do I feel like this?
You told me how my pain was missed
You cut me off like a cyst
As I detach I won't resist

Heavy eyelids hide my weakness
I've forgotten, now I sleep alone
Held in amber with my bloodline
Spoiled parts of me sever off the growths

Why do I feel like this?
You told me how my pain was missed
You cut me off like a cyst
As I detach I won't resist
Why do I feel like this?
You told me how my pain was missed
You cut me off like a cyst
As I detach I won't resist
