

Detach

Mr.Kitty

Remember that night
Remember I lost my mind
I had no name
My face was pale

I did play your game
And your plan surely did fail
Quick on my feet
Into the night

Can't defeat demons
You're growing like a cancer
Eating away
Bits of my life

Bottles of tension
Will transform into a haze
You failed to say
You're counting days

On my shoulders
Demons linger
I will detach myself
From you

They break me down
Swallow my soul
I will detach myself
From you

Forgetting that night
Forgetting a waste of time
My body's weak
My lungs will fail

Thinking thoughts so bleak
I know that something's not right
Your eyes will lie
I do believe

You'll defy my words
Your purpose is to deceive
I won't give up
Listen to me

I'm letting go now
The rope is tight on your neck
Turn off the light
You'll die tonight

On my shoulders
Demons linger
I will detach myself
From you

They break me down
Swallow my soul

I will detach myself
From you
