

Disconnect Lover

Mr.Kitty

Here we are once again
I let you down, it's not the end
Apologize, now we're friends
Salted wounds begin to swell
The tension's there - we know it well
You want it more, I can tell

It not up to you, it's up to me
I'll tell you how to set me free
You take me home, I'll be fine
It not up to you, it's up to me
I'll tell you how to set me free
You take me home, I'll be fine

I was numb through the night
Your better half held me tight
It felt so wrong, this wasn't right
Through a lens my vision bleak
There's nothing more for you and me
I'll disconnect, as I leave

It not up to you, it's up to me
I'll tell you how to set me free
You take me home, I'll be fine
It not up to you, it's up to me
I'll tell you how to set me free
You take me home, I'll be fine

Here we are, here we are
Here we are now

It not up to you, it's up to me
I'll tell you how to set me free
You take me home, I'll be fine
It not up to you, it's up to me
I'll tell you how to set me free
You take me home, I'll be fine
