Drown

Mr.Kitty

Body of the sea
Nothing can hurt me
My heart is in a shell
Weightless I can be

I'll descend into the deep
In the end my precious sleep
Lungs are filled, forget the world
Tears distilled, my thoughts are void

The salt upon my skin
Encloses me within
As soon as I let go
I'll let the water in

I'll descend into the deep
In the end my precious sleep
Lungs are filled, forget the world
Tears distilled, my thoughts are void

I'll descend into the deep
In the end my precious sleep
Lungs are filled, forget the world
Tears distilled, my thoughts are void
I'll descend into the deep
In the end my precious sleep
Lungs are filled, forget the world
Tears distilled, my thoughts are void
