

Empty Phases

Mr.Kitty

(Of all the times, the chances I have given you, you let me down)

On the first I won't forget the way you said
"He took his life and left the line dead"
How do you think selfishly?
You made me hurt so vacantly

You let me down and I know it's all because of me
You let me down and I know it's all because of me (cause of me)
Of all the times, the chances I have given you, you let me down

When I emerge I will forgive
The choice that led to giving up but never know why
A hollow void - you keep me there
I'll drown in tears until you care

You let me down and I know it's all because of me
You let me down and I know it's all because of me (cause of me)
Of all the times, the chances I have given you, you let me down
