

Everything Will Be Okay

Mr.Kitty

We could be Anything we want to be
And you could mean
Everything to me
I'm barely hanging on
And we're slowly floating on

Close your eyes
And everything will be okay
No more lies
Stay with me 'til the break of day
Close your eyes
And everything will be okay
No more lies
Stay with me 'til the break of day

This could be
Our only chance to fight
Take this heart
Beyond great heights
All is fleeting
And I'm withering away
Abandon everything
Cause there's nothing left to say

Close your eyes
And everything will be okay
No more lies
Stay with me 'til the break of day
Close your eyes
And everything will be okay
No more lies
Stay with me 'til the break of day
