Glow

Mr.Kitty

In the dark bodies touch
Looking for ones to trust
I realized my mistake
It's too much for me to take

The rope around my neck will make my prescence known
The gun held to my head will show how much I've grown
The knife that's in my back will leave your heart to roam
As pleasure turns to pain, I'll be alone
I'll be alone

Normally I will fall
To stay clean, to fix it all
I have been through your hell
Bury me when you are well

The rope around my neck will make my prescence known
The gun held to my head will show how much I've grown
The knife that's in my back will leave your heart to roam
As pleasure turns to pain, I'll be alone
I'll be alone
