

Hands

Mr.Kitty

I've broken taboo
By strangling you
Determined to find
The secret of life

There's something I want
Prevent you to haunt
A life with no end
Step closer to God

New soul will surpass
Old shells of the past
On blood they will feed
These killing machines

Days come before us
My work nearly done
Me body of me
Eternally one

I can feel your hands
Lies and lies again
I can feel your hands
Lies and lies again

Can't feel anything
Nobody inside
I'm waiting for you
Don't waste any time

You see you and I
Can still reunite
We once were the same
I felt so alive

I'll give you a choice
Just one single cut
An end for us both
Or binded as one

See what I have seen
Feel what I have felt
You will become me
Nobody will tell

I can feel your hands
Lies and lies again
I can feel your hands
Lies and lies again
