

Healing Waters

Mr.Kitty

As I thought in moment's bliss
We never dreamed you'd leave like this
I close my eyes for one last kiss
To drown you deep in my abyss

Now it's time to let you go
Why you left I will not know
May your light blind through the dark
Let the waters drift you far

Fading in my vision's mist
Take the bracelet from my wrist
Hold your hand, into a fist
The touch I felt, does not exist

Now it's time to let you go
Why you left I will not know
May your light blind through the dark
Let the waters drift you far
