

Invisible

Mr.Kitty

Im the lowest of the low
In the mirror I defy
There's no other place to go
In this terror I reside
Through the glass there is a wall
Couldn't break it if I tried
In my thoughts I will dissolve
Always hurts, but then I'm fine

From the outside looking in
I can see my own demise
It's contained within a curse
Leave what's killing me behind
Every step I will become
All the things I ever loved
From myself, I'll never run
To a place I felt alone
