

Let Go

Mr.Kitty

Like a disease you sleep inside my mind
Eating away my feelings from the inside
Passing the days I find it hard to lie
Under my skin I'll cut you out in no time

My frail dreams fall through
When I think of you
Now my tears have dried
I let go at least you tried

Falling for you was the worst that I could do
Wasting my time for pleasures I grew close to
I did my best to keep you by my side
The day that you left I knew that I'd be alright

My frail dreams fall through
When I think of you
Now my tears have dried
I let go at least you tried
(At least you tried
At least you tried
At least you tried
At least you tried)
