

London

Mr.Kitty

Hi, how are you?
I'm doing alright
When will we meet?
Soon, precious petal

In London, I'll be there with you
Holding your body close to me
We'll walk into the silent night
I'll wait until the time is right

Five years have passed
I'm thinking of you
Please, don't forget
My heart will keep you

In London, I'll be there with you
Holding your body close to me
We'll walk into the silent night
I'll wait until the time is right
In London, I'll be there with you
Holding your body close to me
We'll walk into the silent night
I'll wait until the time is right

In London, we will finally be
Together as one, you and me
I'll kiss you on your patient lips
There's nothing more perfect than this
