

Mother

Mr.Kitty

I will hold your hand as you learn to walk
I will tell you of secrets that I keep

I promise that one day it will be alright
Until then, remember all of the good times
I'll hold you when you pass, I will be broken
I'll fight hard to stay strong until the next life

I will give you love even as you sulk
I will call your name when it's time to leave

I promise that one day it will be alright
Until then, remember all of the good times
I'll hold you when you pass, I will be broken
I'll fight hard to stay strong until the next life
