

My Weak Side

Mr.Kitty

This part of me you cannot see
It's tightly tied to my demise
I've built inside, a paradise
For those who see with clarity
I'll show you my reality
With confidence, I will confide

No matter how hard I have tried
I gave you up, I died inside
It's you, and I and my weak side
No matter how hard I have tried
I gave you up, I died inside
It's you, and I and my weak side

I shed a tear but does it help
A human form will be my shell
I give myself, it's all for you
You give me purpose in a way
I'll grant your wish, do as you say
My modesty begins to fade

No matter how hard I have tried
I gave you up, I died inside
It's you, and I and my weak side
No matter how hard I have tried
I gave you up, I died inside
It's you, and I and my weak side
No matter how hard I have tried
I gave you up, I died inside
It's you, and I and my weak side
No matter how hard I have tried
I gave you up, I died inside
It's you, and I and my weak side
