

Rain

Mr.Kitty

As I feel you drift away
You interest turns to other things on your mind
I think I should disappear
We can never be if you don't confide
Even though I let you choose
I'll never know the future of you and I
The world I keep inside my head
Blurs the line of space and time
We'll be fine

Moments in time will disappear
When blood runs dry I'll never heal
Emotions die when you are near
I'll close my eyes and face my fears

Even though you're here with me
The distance in between us will still exist
Cleanse my heart with clarity
This will be the end if we don't persist
I'll open up the void for you
As you descend into my core you will see
The world I made begins to burn
From hatred and disdain I'll die
Silently

Moments in time will disappear
When blood runs dry I'll never heal
Emotions die when you are near
I'll close my eyes and face my fears

Cross my heart and hope to die
I can see it in your eyes
You're just gonna leave me here
As I lay myself to wake
I don't know if I can take losing self control for you

Moments in time will disappear
When blood runs dry I'll never heal
Emotions die when you are near
I'll close my eyes and face my fears
