

Reason

Mr.Kitty

Do you yearn for the warmth?
Of being human, nothing more
Full of envy for the blood
Inside of me, it's all for you

A reason to die
A reason to die
A reason to die
A reason to die

In the night, you stalk your prey
When it's time for feeding you
Without a fight, I give to you
My precious life, all of it's true

A reason to die
A reason to die
A reason to die
A reason to die
A reason to die
A reason to die
A reason to die
A reason to die
