

Remind

Mr.Kitty

I had to apologize
For the things I said
To my mother and my father
My sister cried
And my other sister left
They didn't want to be a part of it

How could I have been the fool?
I'm in the right, I played it cool
My intentions never cruel
Until you play the victim

I'll remember, I'll forget
All the tears I ever shed
All the things I never said
Remind me of you
I'll remember, I'll forget
All the tears I ever shed
All the things I never said
Remind me of you

You think our relationship
Is indestructible
You think you're closer than my family
How it's always been
Drifting back into my life
I think it's time to cut you off again

I know you can't repair
All the pages I wrote again
Now you're gone and all that's left
Are cursed and rotten memories

I'll remember, I'll forget
All the tears I ever shed
All the things I never said
Remind me of you
I'll remember, I'll forget
All the tears I ever shed
All the things I never said
Remind me of you

I had to apologize
I had to apologize
For the things I said
I had to apologize
I had to apologize
For the things I said

I'll remember, I'll forget
All the tears I ever shed
All the things I never said
Remind me of you
I'll remember over again
All the tears I ever shed
All the things I never said
Remind me of you
