Mr.Kitty

Living in darkened rooms
Through violent shades of blue
Naively, I'm still yearning
Through these marks on my wrist
I know you won't be missed
But slowly, I'm still learning

I will undo this heartbreak
I will undo my careless mistakes
I will undo the dark days
I will undo these memories I've kept of you

Memories of feeling lost
Let my demons get caught
Trying to let me dissolve
All that I've ever known
Came from the love below
And made me good for nothing

I will undo this heartbreak
I will undo my careless mistakes
I will undo the dark days
I will undo these memories I've kept of you
