

The echoes in a hollow void
With raging silence in between
The blank expressions of a ghost
Reflect the space inside of me
As I collect the dying souls
All they can do is cry and scream
I'll place them in my house of dolls
For all eternity (for all eternity)

I hear the voices of the dead
Can't get them out of my head
And if I don't know what to do
I'll leave it up to you
I hear the voices of the dead
Can't get them out of my head
And if I don't know what to do
I'll leave it up to you

I can't escape all of the noise
Dripping with sweat, I can't believe
The demons take and they destroy
All of the presents I will leave
The void is not the place to be
Dragging their chains, they call for me
I will forgive you of your sins
Where does your future lead (Where does your future lead)

I hear the voices of the dead
Can't get them out of my head
And if I don't know what to do
I'll leave it up to you
I hear the voices of the dead
Can't get them out of my head
And if I don't know what to do
I'll leave it up to you

I hear the voices of the dead
Can't get them out of my head
And if I don't know what to do
I'll leave it up to you
I hear the voices of the dead
Can't get them out of my head
And if I don't know what to do
I'll leave it up to you
