Mr.Kitty

From hearts of blue I dream of you
To isolate and decimate
I'll clear my head
These thoughts I dread
You'll never see the ghosts of me
Amethyst tears, forgive my fears
With eyes so bleak what do you seek?
And when we die the doves will cry
Glaciers will fall once and for all

Your shadow on my skin
A feeling that's within
We'll let the shake begin
Just let me take you in
This house is not a home
Don't let me be alone
My heart will die again
And you will never know

Inside my chest I felt a void
It grows with time 'till I'm annoyed
When things were right I wasn't scared
But now it's gone, my feelings rare
It reminds me
I didn't care
For anyone
I wouldn't dare
I'm hiding now inside the earth
Just waiting for a new rebirth

Your shadow on my skin
A feeling that's within
Just let me take you in
This house is not a home
Don't let me be alone
My heart will die again
And you will never know

Your shadow on my skin
A feeling that's within
Just let me take you in
This house is not a home
Don't let me be alone
My heart will die again
And you will never know

Your shadow on my skin
A feeling that's within
Just let me take you in
Don't let me be alone
My heart will die again
