

Ready To Fly

Mrozu

I was ready,you were blind; jelousy is what you're keepin' deep inside

I knew I make it but you did not,girl you're like a winner you were loosin the fight

I am coming at ya, step a side, move out,
'cause bitch it's like nothing but a waist of time

You're keep on hateing, you hate for life, I'll never make it if I would listen to you

Ref: I would never be where I am standing, dream to be the one to rule,if I were listening to you
I would never reach for the stars in the sky isn't comin' true, cause we're ready to fly, to touch the sky, the sun. the moon you know we do
Cause we're ready to fly to touch the sky you know we do, cause you know we're ready to fly x2

We're staing here for long. Cause we're having dope nose, come on now bring it on. you fucking hope most Cause you ain't got care for nobody ,, you and your body, shit words that you're writng are makeing you more dumb, dumb
We're unbreakable, unstoppable, can't hold us down and that's for sure
,all the words could cut like a blade if only I would listen, if I would listen to you
