The Coldest Winter Ever
A love you couldn't measure
We always pray for better
I hope it lasts forever
The ends is an adventure
Where niggas got vendettas
They trap for the cheddar and love Berettas
I can't wait for the day that we come together
And I hope we oversee it and I hope we overcome
Long gone are the days where there can be only one
When you leave your flesh to rest and it's all said and done
I'ma leave them a legacy to remember
With a message and energy people treasure
This mission is not for the timid
Overcame, I did it
I'm living my life with no limits
I always strive for more
You hurt me to the core
And still I value you
Still I try to find reason within my grieving
But without trials, life has no meaning
I see no ceilings
I hear my third eye
Knock me down if you try
But I'ma win, I'ma win until I die
