

Fighter

MSG (Michael Schenker Group)

Jessy was a rough boy
Educated by the streets
Daddy was drunk, Mum ran away
No one could fill his needs

So how can you get out alive
All systems are down, burnt to the ground
Struggling to survive

He's a fighter, giving everything
And you will never count him out
The champion in the ring
Fighter, kissing dirty floors
He gets up and coming back for more

The path ahead is unclear
Paved with victory and defeat
And each day the fight begins anew
Surrender is only for the weak

So how can you get out alive
All systems are down, burnt to the ground
Struggling to survive

He's a fighter, giving everything
You will never count him out
The champion in the ring
Fighter, kissing dirty floors
He gets up and coming back for more

So how can you get out alive
All systems are down, burnt to the ground
Struggling to survive

He's a fighter, giving everything
You will never count him out
The champion in the ring
Fighter, kissing dirty floors
He gets up and coming back for more

Fighter, giving everything
You will never count him out
The champion in the ring
Fighter, kissing dirty floors
He gets up and coming back for more
