

Summerdays

MSG (Michael Schenker Group)

You don't even know me
You forgot my name
All I know is what we had
That's a crying shame

The other day I saw you walking
Down the street
Felt a tremble in my hands
If only we could meet

Living a illusion
A melody run me by
Stuck in this confusion
Don't let the music die

Running into danger
I'm coming off the rail
Don't treat me like a stranger
Cos a love that failed

I am just a loner what do I have do
Searching through old battlefields
Getting back to you

Release me
Why can't you

Those summer days
When life was good somehow
I do remember
It's hard to find
That's why I miss you now
I'm falling!

You don't even know me
Cos you forgot my name
All I know is what we had
That's a crying shame

Release me
Why can't you

Those summer days
When life was good somehow
I do remember
It's hard to find
That's why I miss you now
I'm falling!

I'm just a loner
What do I have to do...
