

Under Attack

MSG (Michael Schenker Group)

From afar their eyes are on us
Spying every move
Beyond distant moons

Coming nearer with every year
Observing every man and beast
From the north, south, west and east

Blind to their deadly plan
To bring life on earth to an end
No one left to take the reins

They'll strike without a single warning
To raid the galaxy
These ruthless enemies

Whoa oh oh oh
We are under attack
But giving up is not an option
Whoa oh oh oh
Can we fighting it back back back?

Their war machines are merciless
This armageddon from the skies
We are ants before their eyes

Their path is paved with victims blood
Their savage hearts are cold as ice
They'll make us clones and slaves

Whoa oh oh oh
We are under attack
But giving up is not an option
Whoa oh oh oh
How can we fight back?
And they've come for man's destruction
Whoa oh oh oh
We are under attack
But giving up is not an option
Whoa oh oh oh
Can we fighting it back back back?

Demoniac intelligence
Thinks killing's justified
Filled with grief and pain

Whoa oh oh oh
We are under attack
But giving up is not an option
Whoa oh oh oh
How can we fight back?
And they've come for man's destruction
Whoa oh oh oh
We are under attack
But giving up is not an option
Whoa oh oh oh
Can we fighting it back back back back?
