

Warrior

MSG (Michael Schenker Group)

If you open the book, turn the page, take a look
Find the truth right between the lines
Read the story in one, how it all just begun
Well, admit it's one of a kind
Giving protection with love and affection
Standing with honor and pride
Every now, every then, will be always the same
Born to follow, walk a fine line

You're born into this world
To believe in mankind's destiny
Marching on the path of glory
When misery is all you see
All you need lies in your faith
And until your dying breath
You are lost and lonely

Under fire and attack
You hear a neverending battle cry
The unsung hero stands alone
Waiting for the day to die
You are thunder and you're pain
You're the keeper of the flame
As you sacrifice

Warrior
Save a life, save a soul, fight for freedom
Warrior
Here you stand with no fear
Warrior
Take me home, take my soul, give us freedom
Warrior
I can shed no more tears

You know, we'll never find some peace
As long as there are burning fires
Only chaos everywhere
Why don't we stick to our own heart's desires?
When thunder meets the rain
It's time and again to sacrifice

Warrior
Save a life, save a soul, fight for freedom
Warrior
Here you stand with no fear
Warrior
Take me home, take my soul, give us freedom
Warrior
I can shed no more tears

Warrior
Warrior
Warrior
