

Wrecking Ball

MSG (Michael Schenker Group)

More than a lover
More than a one-night stand
Now we're bitching each other
I never knew fate had this planned

Baby, you are giving me nightmares
Got me screaming in my dreams
A wild gone lover, out of control
Fighting in the sheets, yeah

I think we have a situation

Here comes the wrecking ball
The wrecking ball
Here comes the wrecking ball
We both losing all
The junkyard waves hello

Impassioned love always fleeting
We didn't care, we dared to try
We were driving from the backseat
And crashed and burned, we lay and cry

Babe, you are giving me nightmares
Got me screaming in my dreams
A wild gone lover, out of control
Fighting in the sheets

I think we have a situation

Here comes the wrecking ball
The wrecking ball
Here comes the wrecking ball
We both losing all
Here comes the wrecking ball
The wrecking ball
Here comes the wrecking ball
Banging against the wall
It shakes us blow by blow

Here comes the wrecking ball
The wrecking ball
Here comes the wrecking ball
We both losing all
Here comes the wrecking ball
The wrecking ball
Here comes the wrecking ball
Banging against the wall
It shakes us blow by blow
