Acrobats

Mt. Joy

Amicable acrobats high above the aftermath
Graceful when we talk trash, so no one knows we want it back
We live like Christmas on credit cards
It's always Christmas where you are

Look alive, don't hurt yourself, touch your body
Realize your surroundings
Count five things in the room
Cause no one is dying soon

Are you not worried, are you not worried
Cause we don't have to lie like them were all already lost

Do whatever you want and I'll roll over
Do whatever you want
