

Got Caught

MU330

Well I got caught messin in things I shouldn't have well how was I to know that you wouldn't relate as far as I'm concerned I'll put my heart back where you see nothing about how I feel when I was down you were the one I wanted when I was down you were the one I needed I should've been wheelin' and dealin' for your feelings now I'm sorry for the time I spent away and not by your side oh well I got caught cuz I thought you'd understand I would hate to think that all this pain was planned and in the end once again I'll pull my heart back where you see nothing about how I feel well I just can't contain my feeling I can't stop its like not breathing
