

Touchdown

Mud

They froze me down to zero
Saying Captian Kurk's your hero.
They sent me up exploring time and space
I'm a million years away and it seems just like a day
And planet Earth is just another place.

He's starting to thaw
He's giving a yawn, start the countdown.
He's nearly awake
Give him a shake
Oh what a touchdown

Planet X-Y-Z is as cozy as my bed
And the people here have a charming way.
No I'm not alone 'cos they made me feel at home
I'm so impressed I think I'll stay.

What can we do?
I wish I knew - stop the countdown
We've lost a good man..
We've done what we can.
What a breakdown!

What can we do?
I wish I knew - stop the countdown.
We've lost a good man.
We've done what we can.
What a breakdown!
What can we do?
I wish I knew - stop the countdown.
