

I'm on Fire

Mugison

Just about to commit suicide man I've stayed up all night I keep thinking about my loved ones how they think everything is alright

I've been preparing it for weeks my mood got lows and peaks I keep thinking about my loved how they think everything is

I'm alright
I'm alright

Not like there is a word to describe how I feel more like a fruit that's already peeled and I feel like all the juice is gone and all I've got is the thought of my loved one

Yeah I feel rotten as rotten can be been a long time since I fell from that tree but the thought of my loved one just keeps on saving me

I'm alright
I'm alright
