

To the Bone

Mugison

Where do you go!

- gone until seven

why that dreamy smile

oh whatever

I wish I was somebody with all the moves wish I was someone that wouldn't get the blues

- I'm so paranoid

Way down all I know

your loving pulls me through -

I owe it all to you

I know all can go

- and I'm worried to the bone that my lover is not my own

...(dont worry - love's going to save you)

Why you messing with me

- gone until seven

please pick me up your phone

oh whatever

I know they all want your warmth show off their moves

Hate how they cast their charm

Just giving me the blues

I'm so paranoid

Way down all I know

- your loving pulls me through -

I owe it all to you

I know all can go

- and I'm so worried to the bone that my lover is not my own

...(dont worry - love's going to save you)
