

This Is Not Who We Were

Mull Historical Society

Rolling, rolling, rolling, rolling off the bodies, bodies, bodies

Can we take production to another peak tonight
They said they would be waiting, waiting, waiting Waiting for the dawn bell, dawn bell, dawn bell
Can we take another body off production line

REFRAIN:

But in another time we could be the winners or second best
In another time we could see the benefits to their tests

CHORUS: This is not who we were, This is not who we're meant to be F G* Em Am This is not who we were, This is not who we're meant to be [Em] Find a f [Am] ee

VERSE: They said you couldn't sign us, sign us, sign us Sign us off the payroll, payroll, payroll Standing in the doorway waiting for the bells to strike We're turning off the power power power Turning off the bloodlines bloodlines bloodlines Hiding from the shadows waiting for the dogs to bite

REFRAIN 2: Em and Am (listen to CD for rhythm) Owned by higher powers, everyone, turned around, to the guns Don't dream my dreams for me.
