

Down Down Down

Mumm-Ra

When you won't dance
our young hearts grieve
A strange light you cast
so come dance with me

If all I have in ten years from now are wasted memories then I won't be ashamed of what the Hell were you thinking standing so tall
I'm not conceding the rise and fall

In every room
I still look for you I need more time before I let go is that such a crime?

I'll just make sure I look so dead in your eyes Don't talk of stars in the sky
Just look down down down Cos it's always been this way Yeah it's always been this way
Yeah it's always been this way
Yeah it's always been this way
