

I never thought you knew what love was
Until I heard you sing a love song
With the way that you treat me
I had to reach my own conclusions

Oh I, I thought your heart was stone
I thought you never let your feelings show

So who, who, who are you singing about now?
Now

You sounded clear as a crystal
You sounded soft as the rainfall
And every note was a lump in my throat
But I knew I had to hear it all

I need to know who
Who, who are you singing about?
Who, who, who are you singing about now?
Now

And it was like a dream to hear such a sweet melody
But I knew it was not for me

I need to know who
Who, who are you singing about?
Who, who, who are you singing about now?
Who, who, who are you singing about now?
Who, who are you singing about now?
Who, who are you singing about?
