

Just Beginning

Muni Long

Hold up now, girl
Didn't I meet you before somewhere?
Aren't you the girl from the Nike store
With the long red hair?
And didn't you say
You had never met Raysean before?
From your last post on IG
I could tell by the bathroom door
Somebody's lyin'
You niggas is triflin'
I see what's goin' on here
You just introduced me to your side chick
And I'm watchin' her cheesin'
And I'm watchin' you smile back
And I'm holdin' my breath 'cause
That's how I'm holdin' these tears back

I was just beginnin' to love you
I was just beginnin' to trust you
We were just beginnin'
Our own happy ending
This the sound a heart makes when it breaks
This is the sound a heart makes when it breaks

Can't trust these hoes
Gotta watch these ho ass niggas too
I been thinkin' 'bout last night
She must've been the one that called you
Then you left out the bedroom
And that's when I followed
Could've sworn I heard you say
"I'ma see you tomorrow"
And I thought nothin' of it
Right up 'til this moment
And she's havin' a baby
Look at her stomach
The baby is yours, I
Don't even have to ask the question
And I'm prayin' like, "Oh, God
I'm 'bout to send 'em all to heaven"

I was just beginnin' to love you
I was just beginnin' to trust you
We were just beginnin'
Our own happy ending
It's the sound a heart makes when it breaks
This is the sound a heart makes when it breaks
It's the sound a heart makes when it
When it breaks
