

Things I Never Said

Muni Long

I know I just pulled up, but I can't stay
I'm not sure at all if you can't pay
It's hard to reach me now, my number's changed
I never really liked you anyway
If it ain't fun, then it's not worth my time
And most this shit is boring, I won't lie

Some of the things I think about least twice a day
Things I think about but never say
It's the thoughts in my head, on my mind, go unsaid
And I might go insane, things I never said-aid
Never said, ooh

I know you don't like me, that's okay
A hater can do nothing else but hate
Cut the check up, please get out my face
Talk to me like that, I slap the taste
I don't want to fight no more, I've changed
One wrong move and, poof, you in your grave

Some of the things I think about least twice a day
Things I think about but never say
It's the thoughts in my head, on my mind, go unsaid
And I might go insane, things I never said-aid
Never said, ooh
