Muni Long

Ding dong
Waiting with my panties off
I don't really do this often
Tonight I wanna get lost, lost
Ding dong
You're here but my man is gone
And I'm having second thoughts
So help me take my mind off
These thot thoughts
These thot thoughts
Thot thoughts

Got me cheating on my nigga
Got me hoping he don't never find out
He fell in love with a stripper
Pussy popping on a handstand
If he catch us he gone pull the trigger
Bet the neighbors know my name now
He invented sex I call him Trigga
Ayyyyyye
Pour some more tequila in my cup
Casamigos got me on this Magnum cutting up, aye
I-I-I thought he knew what's up
I let him get his nut and now this nigga tryna cuff

He wants to be more than friends
I pray that he would understand
I'll never, ever leave my man
And look who's at my door again

Suki!
By the look of things he feeling me
He keep lookin at me giving off that big dick energy
And we've got a connection it's just something bout that chemistry
It's just something bout his vibe that keep bringing out these ho tendencies
It ain't personal it's just business
Yeah I made a few bad decisions
Bout to make me lose my religion
But that side dick it hit different
I been planning, plotting on pussy popping
Sneaking off into his apartment
Rug burns fuckin on the carpet
I was a good girl now I'm back thottin (yeah)
Fresh out the shower Adina Howard t-shirt and panties
This nigga licking on me

Tell me I'm sweeter than candy
This nigga trippin
Talking bout he wanna leave his family
Me and this nigga need to come up with a understanding

He wants to be more than friends
I pray that he would understand
I'll never, ever leave my man
And look who's at my door again
